HELP WANTED—MALE

ANY YOUNG MAN earning $180 or less per month would be glad to give up his present employment and accept one of the many positions we have in wireless, paying $200 a month. We will train him, if he only had the necessary knowledge of the subject. If you are not sure, however, you will stop a moment and consider the matter you will no doubt decide it is to your advantage to make steps immediately toward qualifying for these positions as it will save you the trouble of losing five days in the week for twenty weeks or less, and a great deal of very small, scattered, fully occupied, employ only high grade, expert instructors of long, practical experience. We have a great prospect of daily attendance and actual floor space of an acre in the world and has never been forced to close on account of loss of students, but is always open and can be depended on as perfectly reliable for the future. Otherwise to carry out it's contracts. We have had many students come in from every other school in the country, evidently realizing that we are the best. Come look us over. Give carefully to the paper for our agent. Town students unable to come to Washington, D. C. can write for catalogue. RADIO SERVICE RADIO SCHOOL, 900-2 Pa. ave. Phone Franklin 7514. 30

COME AGAIN JINGLERS!!
THE WANT AD MAN OFFERS
THIS TIME
$10 IN PRIZES
$5.00 First Prize
$3.00 Second Prize
$2.00 Third Prize

For the Three Best JINGLES about
Times' Want Ads
The Winners' Names Will Be Published Next
Saturday, July 5th

Here is your chance to write a JINGLE all by yourself. We help this time from THE TIMES. Now, according to Hyle, as any true son of a jingler will tell you, a jingle should be four lines long, the last words of the first two lines should rhyme, and the last words of the last two lines should rhyme.

Just As Samples Here Are Two Jingles
From the Pen of a Famous JINGLER—

Need a job—and feeling blue?
Work there is and plenty, too.
Try a Want Ad, it will find
Jobs for you of any kind.

Lost some money or a gift?
Looking for a pleasant rift
In your darkened cloud of sorrow
Phone The Times an ad tomorrow

Everybody's Jingling now. Why the whole town's jingling from Four-and-a-half street to Mt. Pleasant and from Alexandria to Takoma Park.

Believe us Bo, the Jingle that gets in the prize money has got to be SOME JINGLE. Don't let this discourage you, however, send in fifty Jingles if you like.

Along with the winning jingles we are going to publish Saturday a whole lot of the good ones that also ran. Remember this, a true honest to Gosh Jingle keeps right on a'jingling whether he gets paid for it or not. Get busy. Get 'em in early.
